Financial Rules and Regulations 2002-Changes Applicable to Geog Executed Activities

Preamble:

In accordance with Article 10 of the Geog Yargay Tshogchhung Chathrim, 2002, the Ministry of Finance hereby issues the changes in the Financial Rules & Regulations 2001(FRR 2001) for facilitating the decentralization process to the geog levels;

Title, Scope and Commencement

These Rules shall be called the FRR 2002 – Changes Applicable to Geog Executed Activities.

Except to the extent specifically modified in these Rules, the procedures prescribed in the FRR 2001 shall continue to be applicable.

These Rules shall come into force from 22nd July, 2002.

These Rules may be amended from time to time by the Ministry of Finance.

Objective:

These Rules are aimed at facilitating the Geog Yargay Tshogchhung to make decisions with regard to the execution and regulation of activities by geogs.

Financing:

The funds for geog-level activities shall comprise of the following:

1. Rural Taxes and locally mobilized resources:
   a. Rural Taxes:
      The following rural taxes shall be collected and retained by the geogs for meeting the maintenance expenditures of the geogs’ infrastructure facilities.
      i. Land Tax including Grazing Tax;
      ii. House Tax;
      iii. Cattle Tax;
      (Introduction of new taxes including rural taxes and revision of tax rates shall be carried out only by the Royal Government.)
   b. Geog’s locally mobilized funds:
      Any locally mobilized resources may be used to supplement the rural tax amounts to meet the local requirements.

2. Centrally allocated funds for specific plan activities.
   Such funds would constitute allocations from the national budget for the implementation of specific activities of the geogs’ 5-years plan and which involve larger financial outlays.
System for Implementation of Activities:

In accordance with the two modes of financing, the activities shall be implemented on the basis of a two-tier system as follows:

1. For expenditures to be met from Rural Taxes and other locally mobilized resources.

   a. General

      The gups shall prepare annual estimates of the rural tax revenue, along with the estimates of locally mobilized resources, and submit then to the Geog Yargay Tshogchhung (GYTs) along with the proposals for expenditure.

      Expenditure shall include minor maintenance of development infrastructure in accordance with the following procedure:

      i. Works and other goods & services costing up to Nu.25,000/- by reasonable inquiries from local parties;

      ii. Works and other goods & services costing above Nu.25,000/- and below Nu.500,000/- through limited inquiry from local parties. If suitable local parties are not available, then the inquiries may be obtained from parties located within the dzongkhag.

      iii. Works and other goods & services costing up to Nu.50,000/- the procedures shall be in accordance with the rules for centrally allocated funds.

   b. Accounting

      i. A current account shall be opened in the name of the geog in the nearest bank, into which shall be deposited the rural taxes and other locally mobilized funds of the geog, and the payments shall also be made through the same account.

      ii. The gup shall operate the bank account jointly with the geog clerk, and the geog clerk shall maintain the accounts and documents.

      iii. The receipts & payments statement shall be prepared on a monthly basis. Such statements shall be submitted to the GYT half-yearly for review and ratification. Such a statement shall also be submitted to the Dzongkhag Yargay Tshogdu and the dzongkhag administration annually for review. A copy of the annual statements shall be submitted to the Department of Budget & Accounts (DBA) as well.

      iv. The records should be maintained and stored properly to ensure future verification and proper handing and taking over between the out-going and in-coming gups.

(For the maintenance of accounts, the geog clerk shall be provided training by the Dzongkhag’s Finance personnel on the basis of budgeting, procurement, book-keeping, and record maintenance. The Dzongkhag’s Finance personnel who shall initially open the books of accounts for them, shall also visit the geogs periodically to supervise the maintenance of accounts)
c. Revenue Collection & Accounting Procedures

i. The gups shall collect the rural taxes as per prevailing practices and deposit them into the current account in the bank.

ii. The gups shall maintain separate books of accounts for the collection on the basis of different types of taxes collected and on individual taxpayers’ basis as per the format to be issued by the Department of Revenue & Customs (DRC), Ministry of Finance (MoF).

iii. The details of taxes collected shall be submitted to the Geog Yargay Tshogchhung annually for review and ratification.

iv. A statement of taxes collected shall be submitted to the dzongkhag, which shall be forwarded to the DRC, MoF.

d. Engineering and Other Technical Services

The Dzongkhag Engineering Section (DES) must provide the necessary technical support wherever necessary.

2. For expenditures to be met from centrally allocated funds for 5-years plans:

a. General

The GYT shall approve the execution of activities limited to their geogs subject to the availability of annual fund allocations from the national budget. The gups shall execute the activities in accordance with the provisions of the FRR 2002, subject to the following variations:

b. Budget Appropriations and Releases

i. The annual budget proposals shall be prepared by the gups with the help of the Dzongkhag Finance Sections (DFS) and submit to the GYT.

ii. After the GYT’s approval, the proposals shall be submitted to the dzongkhag administrations, which will in turn after incorporation with its own budget submit to the DBA, MoF.

iii. The DBA, MoF shall open separate Letter of Credit (LC) accounts for each of the geogs at the dzongkhags.

iv. The appropriated provisions shall be released to the dzongkhags in the LC accounts of the respective geogs.

v. The LC accounts shall be operated by the respective gups and the head of the DFS jointly.

c. Finance Powers

In the exercise of their financial responsibilities, the GYTs and the gups shall have the powers as specified in these Rules and as delegated in the schedule attached these Rules.
d. Payments & Accounting

i. The authorizations for payments shall be given by gups as the head of the GYT, and based only on such authorizations, the DFS shall make the payments.

ii. Payments shall be regulated as per the FRR 2002. The DFS shall maintain all the books of accounts and other financial records separately for each geog.

e. Accounts Reporting

i. The monthly receipts & payments statements with the prescribed schedules shall be submitted to the Department of Budget & Accounts (DBA), MoF.

ii. The accounts of all receipts and payments must be submitted to the GYT and the DYT annually for review and ratification.

f. Engineering and Other Technical Services

i. The payments for works shall be made upon the verification of the bills by the engineers. Such verifications shall be based on the entries in the works execution records as prescribed in Section 6.3 of the Finance & Accounting Manual of the FRR 2001. For this purpose, the DES shall provide the necessary services.

ii. The DES shall prepare the design, estimates, tender documentation, etc..

iii. The functional design, location, the cost estimates, and the mode of undertaking the works shall be scrutinized and approved by the GYT.

iv. The DES shall be responsible for the supervision of works, maintenance of relevant records, and certification of claims as required under the FRR 2002.

g. Procurement Procedures

The gup shall execute the activities in the following manner:

i. The activity should be part of the plan approved by the GYT and for which funds have been mobilized.

ii. He / She should get the estimates for the activity prepared, and have the tenders floated. Among other specifications, a suitable condition to encourage the use of local labour, materials and skills shall be included.

iii. Before embarking on any particular activity costing more the Nu.50,000/-, he /she shall obtain the sanction of the GYT.

iv. The procurements shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of the FRR 2002 subject to the following variations:

A. For Works

i. For works estimated to cost not more than Nu.500,000/- Inquires shall be made from registered local contractors or community groups in the geog. If there are not more than one such party, and whose rates are within a range of +/- 5% of the estimates, the GYT may decide and award the work to the party.
ii. For works costing between Nu.500,000/- to Nu.4,000,000/- Tenders shall be floated in the entire dzongkhag

iii. For works costing above Nu.4,000,000/- Open tenders shall be floated in the entire country.

B. For Other Goods and Services

i. Generally, purchases of items such as school textbooks, medical supplies, chemicals, fertilizers etc. shall be purchased directly from the respective department’s central supplying units/agents.

ii. However, should there be other purchases required for which there are no central supplying units/agents of the Government, the procedures outlined in the FRR 2002 shall be followed.

Tender Committee:

a. A tender committee of the geog shall be formed to recommend the award of contracts for both the tiers of implementation.

i. the gup as the chairperson;

ii. the geog clerk or the Dzongkhag Finance Section head as the case may be;

iii. the relevant field staff or the dzongkhag relevant sector head as the case may be; and

iv. three elected GYT members other than the gup for a period of one year.

b. The Geog Tender Committee shall be equated with the Departmental Tender Committee (DTC), and accordingly its powers shall be at par with those of the DTC.

c. The final decision shall be given only the GYT.

Audit:

All accounts shall be subject to audit periodically, and the audit reports shall be submitted to the GYT, DYT, Finance Ministry and the Home Ministry for review and follow-up action.
